

Fall Leadership Conference Webinar

“Leadership: 2020 Vision Through Mindfulness, Mission and Membership”

September 12, 2020 9:00 am – 12:30 pm

Keynote Speaker: Dena Samuels, PhD, Speaking on Mindfulness-based Diversity, Equity and Inclusion

Dr. Dena Samuels is an author, speaker, leadership trainer, and consultant focusing on mindfulness-based diversity, equity, and inclusion. She taught at the University of Colorado, Colorado Springs, for 20 years while consulting nationally and internationally. She now consults full-time on mindful, inclusive leadership development while remaining on the faculty at the university. Her passions include inspiring people to raise their personal and social awareness to live more fulfilling, connected and meaningful lives; and assisting organizations in building more diverse, equitable, and inclusive cultures.

Additional Speakers

Laura Segal: AAUW National Senior Vice President of Communications and External Relations, Speaking on the AAUW Mission

Paula Munger, President AAUW of Colorado, and Melanie Hudson Membership VP AAUW Colorado Springs Branch, Speaking on Growing Branch Membership

Fall Leadership Conference Registration

All branch and state members are encouraged to attend the webinar for this exciting conference. Registration details will be made available later in August.